S. A. D. 44 BOARD ADOPTS ELEM. ADMINISTRATIVE REORGANIZATION PLAN

To Be Effective July 1, 1977

The S. A. D. 44 board of directors at their meeting in the Telstar Library on Monday evening of this week, adopted the Plan of Elementary Administrative Reorganization as recommended by Supt. Kenneth Smith. Under the reorganization the three elementary supervising principals of the district would be eliminated, with part of their duties assumed by teaching principals in each elementary building. Another portion of their function would be performed by an elementary supervisor, a new position to be created.

The plan calls for the closing down of the Raymond C. Foster School in Newry as a classroom facility. Currently two divisions of grade six from the Bethel area are at the Newry school, with another section in a classroom at Telstar. By the implementation of the reorganization procedure all three sections of sixth graders would be added to the pupil population of Telstar. To accommodate the added numbers the "expansion space" at Telstar will have to be renovated and utilized. With the addition of the sixth graders a position of Telstar Middle School principal will be created for grades six, seven and eight, with supervision of the so-called "middle school" being removed from the responsibility of the high school principal. It is planned to permit, at the discretion of their parents, pupils from Andover and Woodstock to attend the Telstar Middle School sixth grade if they so desire.

In related action the board voted to eliminate the position of elementary supervisor.

WORLD WAR I BARRACKS & AUXILIARY HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The World War I Barracks and Auxiliary #2943 met at the Legion Hall for their regular meeting, Tuesday, Nov. 2. It was presided by a pot luck dinner served by Mary Bishop, Olive Head and Mabel Robertson. Twenty-three members and guests were seated at the table. Paul Head gave the blessing.

The Auxiliary opened their meeting at 1:30 p. m. Leona Curtis presiding. Marjorie Cummings served as chaplain, and Maud Danforth as flag bearer in the absence of the regular officers.

Before the business meeting began, President Leona Curtis gave the obligation to three new members, assisted by Conductress Cora Bennett. They were Gail Scribner, Gertrude Whitman and Doris Cornell.

Two other applications for membership were received and accepted. Their obligation will be given at a later date. That will make six daughters of World War I veterans members.

A report was given of the World War I Council held at the Steer House at Winthrop, Oct. 10. Those who attended from Bethel were Dept. Jr. Vice President Leona Curtis, Leona Lurvey, Maud Danforth, Frances Bennett, Cora Bennett, Selma Chapman, Iola Forbes, Mary Bishop, Mabel Robertson, Jane Van, Agnes Chase, Marjorie Cummings, Rose Taylor and Adeline Dexter. Roy Cummings represented the Barracks.

It was voted to purchase material for bids to be made for Togsus. Also a check was sent to Togsus for World War I boys for Christmas.

Cora Bennett reported a fruit basket was delivered to Lillian Young who is recuperating at her home. Others remembered were Agnes Chase, Joe Perry, A birthday card to Pearl Tibbets was signed by all.

There will be an official board meeting held at the "Steer House" in Winthrop, Nov. 10, at 10 a. m.

The Ladies Aid presented a plant to Simmons Lavallo who is home recuperating after an operation for ulcers.

Earl Largesse had the misfortune to fall from a staging and hurt his back. A few days later he cut his finger severely. He had it surgically treated.

Laura Roberts and Mae Pederson served as ballot clerks at the election Tuesday.

The annual Halloween Party was held Saturday evening. The building was packed as several guests were present as well as a large turnout of townspeople. Everything went smoothly except Larry Wade occasionally called out for help because his camp was invaded with things. Various groups went down during the evening and from time to time Sunday and I assume the UO's are disappointed for another 12 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Bernier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bernier and friends, Janet and Dan, were week end guests at the Berniers.

Virginia Williamson has a beautiful new car.

Laura Roberts returned home after spending a week with relatives.

Dept. Jr. Vice President Leona Curtis will attend, accompanied by her daughter, Gail Scribner.

It was voted to pay all outstanding bills.

A Christmas tree and exchange of gifts will be held at the Dec. 7 meeting. Maud Danforth will furnish the tree; Leona Curtis, the decorations. The committee for December is Hilda Donahue, Jane Van and Leona Curtis.

An Americanism Program was presented by Iola Forbes, chairman. Mrs. Forbes read "This Is My Land"; Myra Stevens of #683, "What the Poppy Means." Adeline Dexter gave a poem on Veterans Day. Frances Bennett read George Washington's Proclamation in Honor of Thanksgiving Day.

Albany
Kathy Bennett, Corres.

Things have been buzzing all week at K-D's Acres. Tuesday night the members of the Albany Congregational Church held a special meeting here. The rest of the week we spent getting ready for Halloween and Dan's seventh birthday. Wednesday afternoon my aunt, Mrs. Dot Hooper of Portland visited us. She has been spending a few days with my folks in Bryant Pond. On Saturday night we had a family party for Dan. Those attending were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Twitchell and his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Roydon Billings, as well as Dick and I, Doug and Dave.

Sunday night Dick took the boys out Trick or Treating. They sure

WEST BETHEL
CHILDREN'S CENTER

Well, we've had a busy two weeks. Halloween week we took a field trip to Ruel Swain's and Stan Moore's where pumpkins were donated for our children's Jack-O-Lanterns. Our thanks again. Also our thanks to Herb Lyon and Cooper Farms for their donation of apples. We were busy that week doing our Jack-O-Lanterns, roasting the seeds, and making paper masks. At our party we played pin the nose on the pumpkin, bobbed for apples and had an apple rolling race, using only noses! This week, keeping in the Halloween tradition, we went to Cooper Farms in West Paris where we watched cider being pressed and each got a sample — mmm!

Our recent stars of the week have been Corey Cole, Bryant Pond, and Aaron Bean, Bryant Pond.

We have a new helper from Telstar, Elaine Lamontagne, who comes in each afternoon after school.

We are looking for donations of curtain rods and a small bureau. Volunteers have been: Jennice Cole, Colleen Plagette, Marianne Fiffeld, Audrey Jordan, Hiroko Kobayashi, and Jody Carter.

Menu—Week of Nov. 8-10
Monday: Veal patties, brown rice, baked squash, tossed salad, rolls/butter, peaches, milk.

Tuesday: V-8 juice, mini meat balls/gravy, noodles, beefs, bread/butter, vanilla pudding, milk.

Wednesday: Tuna croquettes/cream sauce, peas, mashed potato, bread/butter, ice cream, milk.

Thursday: No school, Veterans Day.

Friday: No school, State wide Head Start/Day Care Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Bonney Sr. celebrated a 60th anniversary party at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Carl Bonney, Bryant Pond, Sunday, Oct. 31. Seventy-five people were present from Bryant Pond, West Paris, North Paris, Buckfield, Sumner, and Turner, despite the inclement weather.

A beautiful anniversary cake by Lillian Crockett was the center of attraction with a twelve-step staircase winding around the cake with candles, colored frosting with colored flowers and it was delicious. Greenwood City

Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres.

Dawn smiled, stretched, and the sun peeped between cloud-fingers behind an etching of tree-tops far beyond the hills this morning. Their branches in black stood like spires and steeples against the heavens. November finds them discarding their finery while leaves drift deep and rustle frail and dry against the wind. There are living pictures found in pines and spruces where the hills rise steep toward the sky. Peace is caught in the valley. Only the oaks plaster the hillside with their copper brightness. Leaf mold is in the making.

We have seen the wild geese flying south. When that flying wedge sweeps across the sky with its far carrying clamor, all who see and hear know the message that frost is closing the northern waters and they are honking their salute to another robust winter on their way back south.

The northwest winds are no longer gentle; they have sharpened to a keen edge with some of winter's harsh tones.

It is time now to stand beneath the trees and see the gleam of stars overhead. Listen! The red fox barks, the owl hoots in the moonlight, and the insect chorus is silent.

November is a revealing month. The orioles nests swing, little gray baskets, from trees by the pond, robin's nest, mud caked, in the maple out back, and tiny nests nearby. Along the stone walls are the dens of woodchucks, now more visible. Here and there are the tumbled leaf homes of the squirrels. The hornets' nest swings back and forth in the breeze from a place passed many times unnoticed this summer.

The year's clock is slowly running down.

Ina Ladd Brown describes November in this way and she calls it "Rebirth":

"You are a cold and bitter month, gray November! Jealous of October's flaming beauty you stalk in like a ghoul flailing right and left. With the hatred of a woman, unwanted, scorned, you strike and kill every lovely thing and then, unmoved, await your own frozen death."

On Sunday evening, the ghosts and goblins were making their calls on their neighbors. All were polite and friendly.

Club Eight had its first gathering for the winter at Ruth Hastings in South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mundt, Bethel, called on us on Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brooks, West Paris, were callers on Saturday.

From the Hayes Homestead, all the boys and their families were there for dinner on Saturday.

Scott Hayes and friend Tommy Burke were there for the night, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Betts, Portsmouth, Larry and Dolly Verrill,

Sunday River

Laura Adams and daughter called on her parents, Saturday.

Peggy Blake got her car in-South Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brooks, West Paris, Ann Holt, Bethel, were callers this week at Mr. and Mrs. Loomas Holt's.

This week, Nov. 5, Elmer and Duane Hayes plan to drive Mr. and Mrs. Rolly Hayes to New York when they will join their son, Edwin, and wife, for a trip to Boulder, Colo. They plan to return the week end before Thanksgiving.

Rolly Hayes was in Waterville on Thursday to see his eye doctor.

Callers at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curtis' have been Lucy Bragg and son, West Paris, Mildred Bowman, Lebron, John Swan, Locke Mills, spectated and readied for her trip to Florida in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Onofrio took Julia Fleet to Rumford shopping Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Eva Yates and Russell were in Lewiston Friday and got their glasses finished for some time.

Jeffrey Fleet was home from Unity over the week end.

This cold that not only children are having sure upset the system. If it would leave me you'd get more and better news.

S. A. D. 44 DIRECTORS MEET

mentary supervising principals at the Andover, Woodstock / Locke Mills, and Crescent Park/Ethel Bisbee Schools as of June 30, 1977. The contracts of Principals Robert Hamor (Andover), James Johnston (Woodstock/Locke Mills), and Edward Flynn (CPS/EBS) will be terminated as of the same date. Supt. Smith was instructed to inform the three administrators concerned that they may apply for any position for which vacancies may exist for the 1977-78 school year.

The directors gave final approval to the student suspension and detention policy given initial approval at the Oct. 18 board session. Also given final approval was the transportation policy revision acted upon at the preceding meeting (which in effect has already been in practice for several weeks).

The directors granted unanimously approval to the following list of District Goals and Objectives: to develop a coordinated curriculum in grades K through 12; to improve junior high student services, school discipline, career guidance opportunities and public relations.

A request by Gideons International to make New Testaments available to the fifth graders of the schools of the district was approved.

Turned down was a request by Telstar staff member Rupert Grover for a leave of absence for the balance of the current school year to pursue training in another field. They expressed a fear that an affirmative action in this instance would create an undesirable precedent.

The board approved the superintendent's nomination of Mrs. Floris Robin to be a fourth grade teacher at Crescent Park School. Mrs. Robin has been a teacher of Intermediate Title I at the Andover Elementary School. Miss Christine Greenleaf has been a substitute teacher in the grade four position since the start of the current school year. The late Alma Young was the teacher of this grade.

All board members were present at the Monday session.

The next regular meeting of the board is scheduled for Nov. 15 at the Andover Elementary School.

LIFE'S MESSENGERS TO APPEAR AT HOSANNA CHURCH IN WELCHVILLE, NOV. 7-12

Life's messengers from Hamilton, Ont., Canada, will present special music as well as speaking at Hosanna New Testament Church in Welchville. They will appear at the Sunday services which are at 10:30 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. and also Monday through Friday of the following week.

Life's Messengers consist of Paul and Fay Sledging and their family. At one time the family went the way of so many families with the mother and father separated and unable to work out their problems. Then they both had a unique experience with God and the family was then re-united.

Since that time they have ministered from coast to coast, and have founded coffee houses across the United States and Canada, ministering to drug addicts and kids off the street.

Come and hear their beautiful story and share the joy they now experience.

Meetings are from Sunday, Nov. 7 through Friday, Nov. 12, at 7:00 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

DIABETES WEEK PROGRAM FOR BETHEL

Urine tests and blood sugar tests will be offered to the citizens of Bethel and surrounding towns as a test for diabetes during Diabetes Week, Nov. 8 to 12, at the office of the Doctors Wadhers.

Dr. Om Wadhers is serving as chairman of Diabetes Week in Oxford County for the Maine Diabetes Committee of the Maine Medical Association. He will do free urine test screening in his office anytime between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., Monday through Friday, during Diabetes Week. Persons interested should go to his office preferably two hours after eating a heavy breakfast or lunch.

Dr. Wadhers recommends blood sugar tests as a more reliable method of detecting early or mild diabetes. Persons interested in having this test may go to his office at 2 p. m. any day Monday through Friday during Diabetes Week, and should eat a heavy lunch two hours before taking the test. (Sample menus are posted in area stores.) There will be a fee of $2.00 for the blood sugar test to cover the cost of lab charges.

According to Dr. Wadhers, anyone, any age, can have diabetes but those most likely to have are relatives of diabetics, people over age 40, and those overweight. "These persons," he said, "are especially urged to come to the office for a test."

Dr. Wadhers points out that diabetes is the fifth leading cause of death by disease, the second leading cause of new cases of blindness and a major cause of heart attacks and kidney failure. He stresses early detection and proper control to improve a diabetic's chances of leading a productive life, and urges all citizens to be tested during Diabetes Week.

Blood sugar tests are also being offered at Rumford Community Hospital during Diabetes Week but, as a convenience to persons living in the Bethel area, Dr. Wadhers is providing this service at his office.
